

John Milly

I love designing, mentoring, and learning new perspectives to improve user experiences and team efficiencies.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

Ellie Mae: Manager, Web Design

March 2018 ~ Present

Manage digital design team of two. Create and maintain scalable, living design system based on “blocks”, a set of small templates that stack together to create virtually unlimited pages. Collaborate with various teams to ensure brand, content, and platform consistency.

Viewpost: UI/UX Designer

February 2016 ~ October 2017

Lead, create, and maintain UI design patterns and components that can scale. Hands-on ideation, wireframing, prototyping, and final hand-off with engineering. I collaborate with fellow UX, DEV, ENG and PMs to delight our users and meet business goals.

Elementum: UI Designer

March 2015 ~ January 2016

Lead UI designer on 6-person UX team. Helped with feature strategy and product road map. Worked with developers to maintain patterns and provide detailed design specs.

Accela Senior Visual Designer

January 2014 ~ March 2015

Lead designer on flagship product: Civic Platform 8.0. Worked closely with Director of UX and team on various iOS and web-based products for municipalities of all sizes.

Hundred10: Partner, Art Director

October 2007 ~ October 2013

Hands-on art director and partner for 7-person digital agency. Lead product designer on iOS apps, responsive websites, and customer-facing portals for local, national and international clients.

PROFILE

Senior level UX/UI designer that enjoys leading by example, mentoring younger designers, and learning user needs through context, empathy, and business goals. Skilled in popular design tools, knowledge of front end and iOS development, effective communicator, committed to quality, and team player seeking true collaborative environment. References available on request.
